What Is COST?

The Council On State Taxation (COST) is the premier state tax organization representing business taxpayers, noted by one prominent tax policy expert as the “Most Influential Nongovernmental Organization in the state tax policy arena.”

COST is a nonprofit trade association consisting of approximately 550 multistate corporations engaged in interstate and international business. COST’s objective is to preserve and promote equitable and nondiscriminatory state and local taxation of multijurisdictional business entities.

Why Join COST?

COST membership is exclusive; only multistate businesses that are not engaged in tax advising or consulting may apply for membership. As a member of COST, a business will benefit from saving: taxes as a result of identifying tax savings opportunities; training $$$ through participation in conferences and schools; professional staff time through participation in a national network of corporate state tax professionals sharing technical knowledge; and resources as a direct and indirect beneficiary of legislative activities and advocacy.

“... The best conference I have ever attended. I am a first-timer and am already planning to return. The facilities were amazing. The COST staff did an excellent job of planning and conducting the conference.”

“Membership in COST is not only useful, for a State Tax Professional with planning, compliance, controversy or legislative responsibilities, it is essential.”

“The environment COST fosters through conferences, both national and regional, facilitates networking and makes it easier to connect with folks at other companies and establish career-long relationships.”

What Does COST Offer?

Nationally Recognized Educational Programs

COST offers high quality education opportunities, featuring the hottest topics, delivered by the nations' most recognized experts. COST events include:

- ▶ SALT Basics School
- ▶ Sales Tax Conference and Audit Session
- ▶ Spring Audit Session and Income Tax Conference
- ▶ Intermediate/Advanced Sales and Use Tax School
- ▶ Intermediate/Advanced State Income Tax School
- ▶ Annual Meeting / Fall Audit Session
- ▶ Canadian Tax Workshop for U.S. Companies
- ▶ Forum on U.S. SALT for European Companies
- ▶ Property Tax Workshop
- ▶ Approximately 30 Regional Meetings held in cities throughout the U.S.

All COST programs qualify with state boards of accountancy and state bar associations for continuing education credits.

Advocacy

COST's advocacy program is oriented towards active involvement on state tax issues of broad importance to the membership. COST advocates on behalf of its membership in the legislative, judicial and administrative arenas. COST's reputation as the nationwide voice of corporate taxpayers has garnered respect from the leadership of the National Conference of State Legislatures, the Federation of Tax Administrators, the National Governors Association, and even the Multistate Tax Commission. COST also serves as a resource on business tax issues to other organizations, including State Chambers of Commerce and state taxpayer associations, as those groups develop strategies to address complex state business tax matters.

COST disseminates information on pertinent legislative, judicial and regulatory developments through regular publications and coordinates advocacy activities with members and certain other interested parties. COST files amicus briefs with state and federal courts, publishes studies on a variety of business tax policy issues, provides testimony (oral and written) before legislative and administrative bodies, meets regularly with state and federal policymakers, and brings together interested members to enhance advocacy activities on targeted issues.

Networking Opportunities

One of the most often cited reasons for joining COST is the opportunity to network with other state tax professionals. Experienced state tax practitioners know very well that the answers to many state tax questions are often not accessible via research alone, or written down anywhere, but are based upon years of experience and discussions with peers. COST promotes networking opportunities through its on-line member forum (WWW.COST.ORG), and at COST conferences, schools and regional meetings. COST members also participate in a number of issue specific task forces and committees, including Income/ Franchise Tax, Mobile Workforce, Property Tax, Unclaimed Property, Sales & Use Tax and Telecommunications Taxes.

“COST provides the national perspective that is so desperately needed in the crafting of state public tax policy. They consistently deliver judicious data and resolute expertise to the tax paradigm for which we advocate.”

COST Publications

Since its inception COST has been a leading source for state tax information critical to its members. COST members use a variety of ways to stay connected to industry information, including publications, newsletters, exclusive website content, forums, special reports, and current development outlines. Members have access to up-to-date information when they need it.

COST Conscious—A bi-weekly publication authored by COST staff and distributed electronically to COST members only. The purpose of COST Conscious is to communicate timely information about COST accomplishments, upcoming activities or services, and membership activities, as well as important technical information on cases, legislation and regulations.

Practitioner Connection—A bi-weekly publication summarizing articles posted by COST Practitioner Connection partners (over 120 law, accounting and consulting firms). This publication also includes a listing of upcoming events offered by practitioners. COST members and COST Practitioner Connection members may receive this publication.

Legislative Alert—The primary legislative communication device that highlights the significant business tax proposals at state capitals and the politics and personalities driving them. Many companies rely on the Legislative Alert as a SOX 404 control mechanism.

Events Outlook—A monthly publication that highlights and announces all upcoming COST Regional Meetings, Task Force Meetings, Conferences and Schools.

COST.ORG

The COST website (WWW.COST.ORG) is an online information network tailored to meet the information and communication needs of corporate state tax professionals in an easy, efficient, and economic manner. Through COST.ORG, COST's members have fingertip access to:

- Private on-line interactive discussion groups on discrete state tax issues;
- Searchable databases;
- Over 4000 technical articles posted by COST Practitioner Connection partners (law, accounting and consulting firms);
- Conference and course information;
- Publications;
- Studies and special reports;
- Amicus briefs and judicial reports;
- Job bank; and more.

COST formed its research affiliate, the State Tax Research Institute (STRI) in 2014 to help American businesses facing formidable and costly challenges in numerous state tax policy arenas. STRI is the preeminent state tax research organization providing thought leadership and detailed analysis representing the business perspective on state tax policy. STRI has helped save COST's members and other U.S. businesses billions of dollars in corporate income taxes and sales taxes on business inputs. Current trends show no sign of abating, and much more remains to be done to educate state policy makers. STRI's studies and education help state government and the public better understand the impact of state and local finance and taxation on large businesses.
